MR. POPPER'S PENGUINS

Synopsis

Mr. Popper loves the wintertime. His house painting work is no longer needed and he can spend his time reading about polar expeditions. After sending Admiral Drake a letter he receives a message and a penguin by way of reply. Mr. Popper and his family are excited about having a penguin for a pet. The penguin is lonely and unhappy until a near-by zoo sends another penguin to the Poppers. It doesn't take long before there are ten little penguins in the family.

It takes a lot of money to feed to so many penguins. As a way of earning money, Mr. Popper decides to train the penguins to perform and travel around the country with them. Although many funny things happen on and off the stage, the penguins are a big success and the Poppers now have enough money to pay the bills.

In the end the penguins are asked to go on an expedition to the North Pole. Sadly Mr. Popper agrees to let them go, and discovers that he has been invited along too, a dream come true for him.
