By SANDRA NEIL WALLACE

Strong.
Determined.
Brave.

DIANE NASH WORKED ALONGSIDE John Lewis and Martin Luther King Jr. for social justice, yet few know her name. She led sit-ins at Nashville lunch counters with like-minded students until people of all colors could eat together. Then she took on the Freedom Rides to integrate bus travel. She helped secure passage of the Voting Rights Act. All her fights were peaceful protests. Diane changed the world with courage and love. Her love is loud.
